This trio is led by the half Swiss-half Catalan pianist Evaristo Pérez, who is joined by a Polish percussionist who happens to be a flamenco specialist, and by a top French jazz bass player. Put the three together, and you have a dream team going! This exceptional trio brings the cajón drum into the jazz fold. The group plays a combination of jazz, flamenco, and acoustic techno, with a good amount of swing and some heady improvisations. Their music is both powerful and smooth, and its very freshness creates true musical complicity between the members.

After more than 60 successful concerts promoting their first effort, the 2nd CD of the "cajón-jazz" trio will see the light—once again on Fresh Sound Records—followed by a 2015-16 CD-release Euro-tour.
